

Birds of a Feather

LIVE THEATRE
right here at Pu'u Kukui!

What happens when birds of a different feather flock together?
In this original tale set on Maui (written by Kathy Collins), Moa (the Hawaiian chicken), Pkake (the peacock), and Manu'aipilau (the mynah) struggle to accept and learn to appreciate their differences, eventually realizing the strength in their diversity. They also discover, to their great surprise, they are more alike than not.
